She has written extensive design columns for various periodicals including Home and Design magazine where she debuted an exclusive monthly column entitled “Inside Design” in 2004.

Ms. Krümm wrote of her experiences traveling global markets to bring readers “behind the scenes” of the interior design industry. In 2015, Ms. Krümm continued her “Inside Design” series for Your Home magazine, a nationally marketed, bi-monthly luxury home publication, where she contributed an exclusive Q&A style feature, offering expert design advice and solutions to reader inquiries.

Experience Abroad

Ms. Krümm's national notoriety is rivaled only by her growing global acclaim. Her work was featured in the book Modern Interior Design, The American Collection, which was published in China in two languages in 2009. Ms. Krümm served as the contributing editor of the hardbound book, and was honored with the responsibility of selecting leading designers to showcase their unique and varied styles of modern American design. Ms. Krümm has also had the privilege of showcasing her work in some of China's leading design publications such as Home Idea magazine and Furniture & Interior Design which highlighted Ms. Krümm's role as the guest International Designer in the 2012 100% Design Shanghai Exhibition, where she was invited to design the internationally renowned 2012 “Italian Apartment”.

This expansion into the overseas market is personally appealing to Ms. Krümm, as it complements her lifelong love of travel and international design. Ms. Krümm has resided in London and Florence and traveled extensively throughout Asia, Europe, North and South America, and the Caribbean.

Unique Aesthetic

Honing on her innate entrepreneurial spirit, Ms. Krümm's experiences abroad have inspired multiple art-related international business ventures involving her signature product line, the Kira Krümm Koastal Kollektion, which includes luxury fine furnishings, fabrics and home décor for coastal lifestyles. Ms. Krümm's international travels have enhanced her creative perspective enabling her to develop a distinct brand aesthetic. Inspired by nature's effortless elegance and the natural beauty of places where land meets water, Ms. Krümm's signature Koastal aesthetic embodies a relaxed, sophisticated style that has become synonymous with Naples luxury interior design.

“Koastal” highlights the timeless, universal elements of duality, balance, and tranquility through a complimentary blend of materials and textures (such as metal, driftwood, glass, sand, and shells; soothing neutral hues and metallic accents), in order to showcase the harmonious juxtaposition of manmade elements and things found in nature. The resulting interior environments evoke serenity in unforgettable details that are both livable and luxurious.

Signature Kollektion

In 2008 and 2009 Ms. Krümm unveiled her unique signature Koastal Kollektion at the Miromar Design Center when she was selected to participate in their annual Designer Showcases exhibition. These award-winning Showcases, the 2008 “Shanghai Room” Master Suite, and 2009 “Yin Room” Master Suite, illustrated Ms. Krümm’s distinct design aesthetic and secured her position as an innovator at the forefront of Florida’s growing luxury interior design industry.

Ms. Krümm has developed her brand internationally, with special focus on her luxury bedding line which has garnered extensive interest worldwide. In March 2013, Ms. Krümm launched an exclusive bedding collection for the Chinese luxury market which debuted at the 31st Annual China International Furniture Fair in Guangzhou. The same year, Ms. Krümm and her husband launched their fine art gallery, Studio International, in which they represented renowned fine artists from the Americas in in Shanghai and Beijing’s top art markets and exclusive galleries.

Artistic Roots

Ms. Krümm’s devotion to design began as a young art student. She attended the Governor’s Magnet School for the Arts at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA, from 1984 to 1988. During that time, she received numerous notable awards, and also participated in a fine arts gifted program at the Rhode Island School of Design. Ms. Krümm later earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts with an interior design major from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, VA. While studying art and design at VCU, she presided as the Senator for the School of the Arts on the Student Senate Executive Board and acted as President of the Fine Arts Council.

In 1992, Ms. Krümm received a special scholarship from her university and continued her studies of interior design, furniture design and architectural photography as a World Study Scholar at the American College in London.

Ms. Krümm quickly began establishing a reputation for excellence as the owner of a prosperous interior design company in Virginia Beach, Virginia. She primarily designed upscale residential and commercial projects, including several of the area’s most fashionable and successful restaurants, while earning an array of awards for her work. In 2000, she relocated to Naples, FL, and soon established her highly regarded firm Kira Krümm Interior Design. She selected the Miromar Design Center, Southwest Florida’s premier resource for design professionals and consumers, as the location for her unique, full service design studio. Ms. Krümm continues to evolve artistically and professionally, unveiling her new company name, Koastal Design Group – Kira Krümm & Company., in 2016 and launching a new studio location in Downtown Naples in Fall 2017.

Meaningful Impact

In addition to her affiliation with many national and international trade organizations, Ms. Krümm has supported several regional fine arts and community organizations such as Artis–Naples and the Marco Island Foundation for the Arts. As the Foundation’s former Vice President and Visual Arts Chairman, Ms. Krümm acted as the Chairman of the Selection Committee for Art Quest, the first public sculpture exhibition on Marco Island. Ms. Krümm was appointed a member of the Marco Island City Arts Advisory Committee and actively planned an annual arts festival for the City of Marco Island in 2011. Also in 2011, the Marco Island Academy invited Ms. Krümm to join a select panel of community leaders on the newly established advanced learning academy’s 2011-2012 National Advisory Board. Ms. Krümm is also a proud supporter of the Stay in May Festival (formerly ArtsNaples) which celebrates the cultural arts through unique international events throughout Southwest Florida each May.

As an accomplished designer, Ms. Krümm continues her dedication to the arts and her community through contributions to various local organizations that work to create meaningful impact in our community through education, empowerment, and enrichment programs.
