KIRA KRÜMM INTERIOR DESIGN

Passion for the Artistry of Design

Art, elegance and refined comfort, whether classical or contemporary — is a unique hybrid of both — a room designed by Kira Krümm evokes such descriptions. Through her artistic vision and approach, each custom element in finishes, hardware and fixtures join together to create a visual symphony, with a melody and tempo suited to each individual client.

"I approach interior design as an artist," Krümm explains. "I view each room as a painting, concentrating on such compositional elements as color, texture, repetition and balance. My clients come to me for my ability to create a home clearly suited to their taste and needs, but above all, they seek the trained eye of a designer who can create beauty. It is my joy — challenge — to build their dreams."

After majoring in interior design at Virginia Commonwealth University, Krümm attended the prestigious American College in London as a World Study Scholar. That experience sparked her interest in visiting foreign lands, and the openness to travel, bringing back a cultural appreciation, which she explores in her designs. "My clients are sophisticated and well-traveled," she explains. "When they can afford to go anywhere in the world that yields to my home, I know I have succeeded."

Just as Naples has attracted international interest for its artistic and architectural marvels, for more than a decade of her award-winning career, Krümm has been distinguished by her innate ability to transform both sophisticated and style into structural cohesion, which ultimately serves not merely as homes, but as homes. Krümm's portfolio has been mentioned in some of Southwest Florida's most awe-inspiring aquatic environments, from yacht professionals anchoring shores Park Shores and Pelican Bay to the regal estates of Port Royal and Malibu. Krümm shares her greatest satisfaction has come from years of working with discerning clients. The words clearly with them to design environments that are aesthetically pleasing, conventionally satisfying and optimally functional.

"Whether I'm utilizing the concept in implementing their vision," Krümm says, "I've learned that the process requires a disciplined, business approach. From start to finish, ensuring attention to details, and incorporating commitment to fulfilling the client's expectations."

As her numerous awards clearly indicate, Kira Krümm's passion for artistry and disciplined approach create exceptional homes.
