THE BEST OF BRUSH TO MOIST
APRIL 2011 $5.95

Top left: Designer Faith Rie Cahill, owner of Freestyle Interiors, uses a visually pleasing wood ceiling treatment to set off the stylish Fine Art lighting in this dining room.

Sophisticated, clean-lined Swalm furniture combines rich wood and knitted upholstery.

Above: Although the furnishings and decor in the dining room above are rich with texture and color, designer Kira Kriksen avoided over-embellishing, and focused on classic design with clean lines. Left: Len and Louise Schaper transformed a decidedly not contemporary 1973 condo and gave it sleek sensibilities with Jodi Gillespie of Meyer, Scherer & Rockcastle.
