

NAPLES DESIGN

VOLUME 7 NUMBER 1

Partnering with the Designer Showcase for the first time will be Florida West Arts, a professional arts organization and gallery located at the IDC that represents fine artists throughout Southwest Florida. Paintings, sculptures and pottery from Florida West Arts will be incorporated into the designs of the various rooms and spaces.

The Designer Showcase will be open to ticket purchasers Monday through Saturday beginning Jan. 19 and ending April 17, 2009. In addition to touring rooms and spaces reflecting the latest trends and innovative ideas by Florida's top interior designers, ticket holders will be able to attend a wide variety of exciting workshops and seminars presented by leading design industry experts. Tickets will be $20 and available through the Symphony and at the IDC. For more information about the gala or Designer Showcase, call the Symphony at 239/418-0996.

The International Design Center is Southwest Florida's premier resource for design professionals and consumers. Forty-five distinctive showrooms present a world-class collection of the finest furniture, fabrics, flooring, lighting, kitchen and bath products, art, accessories, wall coverings and so much more. Design referral services and special events spaces are available.

The IDC is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information about the IDC, call 239/390-5111 or visit www.IDCFL.com. The IDC is located on Corkscrew Road in Estero across from Miromar Outlets, I-75, exit 123, between Naples and Fort Myers. G

The Master Suite in the 2008 Designer Showcase at the International Design Center was a show stopper. Its ethereal feel was inspired by the city of Shanghai, China, where the designer has spent considerable time.
