DESIGNER KIRA KRÜMM GETS BEHIND THE BRAZILIAN CHARM AND VERSATILITY OF THE LÍRIO ARMCHAIR BY UULTIS

TEXT CHRISTOPHER DAY

THE TASTEMAKER: One of the Gulf Coast's most esteemed interior designers, Naples-based Kira Krümm is the founder of Koastal Design Group, a studio known all over Florida and the United States for its elegant approach to seaside-inspired design.

THE OBJECT: Inspired by the lily flower, the Lírio armchair by Brazilian brand Uultis offers an organic shape that embraces with comfort. Available in various finishes and upholstery, the chair also features a swivel base that makes it a favorite of interior designers with a penchant for versatile pieces.

IN HER WORDS: "I have always loved innovative designs inspired by nature, which is why I like the Lírio so much. Its timeless silhouette strikes the perfect balance between form and function." koastaldesigngroup.com; uultis.com
